Fine Participates in YWCA's Annual Stand Against Racism

GLENVIEW, IL—State Rep. Laura Fine (D-Glenview) joined community groups from across the North Shore last week to encourage community members to have more tolerance and acceptance for those who are different from them. This is the second year that the YWCA Evanston/NorthShore has hosted the Stand Against Racism event. Fine joined over 45 community groups standing in support of ending racism and intolerance at Ridge Ave. and Church St. in Evanston.
