Rep. Fine to Host Town Hall Meeting in Glenview

GLENVIEW, IL – In an effort to reach out to area residents and provide an update on the spring legislative session, state Rep. Laura Fine (D-Glenview) will host a town hall meeting Thursday, June 6 from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the Glenview Police Station located at 2500 E. Lake Ave., in Glenview.

“I believe one of my most important jobs as state representative is to be open and accessible,” said Fine. “My door is always open and I look forward to meeting with constituents and answering questions about our state and community. I encourage local residents to join us for this helpful and informative event.”

Fine will be joined by state Senator Daniel Biss (D-Evanston) at this town hall meeting. Fine and Biss will be available to provide an update on the budget, pension reform, and various local issues.

For more information, please call Rep. Fine’s constituent service office by calling (847) 998-1717 or by e-mailing RepFine@gmail.com.
