Rep. Fine to Host Property Tax Workshop in Wilmette to Help Homeowners File Appeals with Board of Review

GLENVIEW, Ill. – Continuing her efforts to help homeowners lower their property tax bills, state Rep. Laura Fine, D-Glenview, will host a Property Tax Workshop on Tuesday, Sept. 17 from 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. at the Wilmette Park District Recreation Center, 3000 Glenview Road in Wilmette. The workshop will offer New Trier Township homeowners an opportunity to file appeals with the Cook County Board of Review.

“Filing a property tax appeal can feel daunting,” Fine said. “At this workshop, experts from the Cook County Board of Review will be on hand to simplify the process and walk you through filing an appeal.”

Fine is co-hosting this event with Cook County Commissioner Larry Suffredin, Board of Review Commissioners Michael Cabonargi and Dan Patlak and other elected local and state officials. Representatives from the Cook County Board of Review will be on-hand to answer questions about assessments and guide homeowners through the process of filing an appeal with the Board of Review.

For more information on this or other upcoming events, please call Fine’s constituent service office at 847-998-1717 or email RepFine@gmail.com.
