

Chamber's Legislative Task Force Gets To Work

The Force Is On

The Glenview Chamber of Commerce Legislative Task Force brings local businesspeople together with area legislators.

What kinds of barriers are businesses facing in Glenview and the region? What are the top concerns and top opportunities for improvement?

Those and other questions were addressed in a January meeting involving the Glenview Chamber of Commerce Legislative Task Force and government officials, including U.S. Rep. Brad Schneider (D-10th), State Rep. Laura Fine (D-17th), State Rep. Robyn Gabel (D-18th) and State Sen. Daniel Biss (D-9th). Staff representing U.S. Sen Mark Kirk (R-IL), U.S. Rep. Jan Schakowsky (D-9th) and Cook County Commissioner Gregg Goslin (R-14th) also attended.

Attending the meeting from the chamber were members:

Linda Eason, Astellas Pharma; Dan Thompson, DDK Kitchen Design Group; Greg Goodsitt, Edward Jones; Craig Solomon, Wesley Child Care Center; Derek Solomon, Kraft Foods; Francine Barnes, Carriage Hill Kennels; Hania Fuschetto, NorthShore University HealthSystem; Kevin Mullarkey, Joseph Mullarkey Distributors; Dan Peters, Advanced Information Consulting; Elizabeth Fritz, 22nd Century Media; Jim Zimmerman, Harrison's Poultry Farm; Joe Bredemann, Bredemann Ford and Lexus.

The task force will hold meetings quarterly.
